Two adaptive peaks, 1.00 and 0.72, are joined by a saddle at w = 0.26

Illustrative landscape w(z_1, z_2) · same gradient and limits in both panels · orthographic, elevation 24°, azimuth −58°

a The shape: two peaks and a saddle

b The values, read from the twin

Analytic function landscape(z1, z2) in _common.py, illustrative · landscape_3d.py · git 99753b9-dirty